

I write to protest any relaxation of the broadcast ownership rules. The bias of some news sources is already so widely known that it is a subject for late night comedians. To allow the owners of those news sources to control still more channels would harm our democracy. We need more voices, not fewer.